

Thomas Cody

Thomas Cody is retired from Macy's where he served as vice chair. He is currently chairman of the board of trustees at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center and is also a member of the board of trustees at Xavier University. He formerly served on the boards of The Athenaeum of Ohio-Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati Arts and Technology Center, CTS Corporation, The Greater Cincinnati Foundation, The Marvin Lewis Community Fund, Ohio National Financial Services and Ohio National Life Insurance Company. He was named a Great Living Cincinnati in 2012.

Mr. Cody also chaired the boards of United Way of Greater Cincinnati and Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber of Commerce, co-chaired Cincinnati CAN and chaired the 2007 United Way Campaign. He is also a past board member of Cincinnati Art Museum, the Medical Center Fund and the Hebrew Union College Ethics Center.