

Simone (Mona) Kerstine

Mona Kerstine's influence in our community has been felt far and wide. For her community spirit, compassion and efforts on behalf of charities she loves, Mona has been honored by many organizations including as Cincinnati Enquirer Women of the Year (1988), JDRF Cincinnatians of the Year (1998), and Israel Bonds' Woman of the Year (1989). She has held board and officer positions with the Cincinnati Opera where she is co-chair of the Opera Ball, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Jewish Federation, Cincinnati United Way, and the Board of Overseers of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion.